In the beginning {name of book one}	בְּרֵאשִׁית
And he settled {chapter title}	וַיֵּשֶׁב
Chapter {number:}	פָּרָק
37	לז
Verse {number:}	פְּסוּק
6	ו
{ Yoseif (Joseph), having been given leave by his brothers to disseminate the contents of his alleged revelation, is about to share his revelation with them. } And he said	וַיֹּאמֶר
to them {; that is, it was Yoseif who said to his brothers:}	אֶלֵיהֶם
Hear {my dream, through which, I believe G-d meant to impart a revelation of things to come.}	שְׁמְעוּ
Please {listen to}	נָא
the dream {; that is}	הַחֲלוֹם
the {dream;} this {prophetic dream}	הַזֶּה
that	אֲשֶׁר
I dreamt {. Please listen to and entertain the possibility that there is contained within my dream prophetic insight meant to help you get through the G-d-ordained inevitable hard times that lie ahead. G-d is leading you on a journey; not to a destination but to a place in time. One day, you will find yourselves standing at the crossroads of drought and famine.}	חֲלֹמְתִי:
